

It is clear that the FCC ideologue Chairman's proposal to change the rules to allow more consolidation in the broadcasting industry is not what the American people want. The NAB--sure. But not the people. I urge Commissioners to vote down his proposal. Enough is enough!